Poetry Week

We have all had a lovely week this week. Each class has written their own accounts and poems of their memories of when our very special animal visitors came in! Here are just a few of them, starting with our Nursery children:

Kian looked at the lizard, "It looks like a small dinosaur."

"We were sitting still and it said hello." Riley remembered.

"It said owl" Rhian replied.

"It says hooo. It's beautiful." said Roman Isla looked at the Eagle owl, "It's bigger than the others. It flaps its wings."

Lola replied "It's pretty, flap, flap."

Animals

By Badger Class

Rabbits hop, hippos waddle.

Parrots flap, snakes hiss.

Pigeons peck, monkeys swing.

Ladybirds flap, lions roar.

Worms wiggle, tigers run.

Cats walk, birds fly.

Snails curl, fish swim.

Kangaroos jump, monkeys climb.

Snakes slither, slugs slide.

Butterflies fly, birds flap.

Spiders crawl, dogs bark.

Pigs squeak, frogs jump

Panda Class Animal Poem

Monkeys do tricks and kangaroos hop
Dogs woof and chickens flap
Lions roar and cats run fast
Tigers eat and sharks bite people
Cows run and crocodiles snap
Dinosaurs roar and elephants stomp
Tigers run fast and horses clip clop
Gorillas bang their chests and fish swim
Cats walk quietly and roosters cock a doodle do
Frogs jump and chimpanzees swing
Rabbits hop and monkeys hang around

The owl has orange eyes.
The owl has fluffy feathers.
The owl is soft.
The owl has big wings.
The owl is white.
The owl has a black beak.
The owl has big eyes.
The owl is called Gizmo.
The owl has a sharp beak.
By Scarlet from Owl Class;

'The Eagle Owl has Orange and Black eyes. They are adorable and cute. They have strong and beautiful wings. They have very large claws to catch mice. They have sharp beaks. They frown because they are cross.'
By Christina Saunders

Year 2 - Rabbit Class - Billy Gould

There's an owl in our school,
Lily's yellow and black pen is gone,
Toby got fluffy feathers in his hair,
Jack's lost his fluffy slippers,
Cody's see through glasses are broken,

There's an owl in our school,
Just hear what I say,
I haven't seen it yet,
But I will one day,
It's really causing trouble,
Why won't it go away!

There's an owl in our school,
Bella's slipped on a damp patch,
Yvie's beautiful, red hair band is missing,
Holly's red cardigan has holes in,
Amy's bouncy ball has popped,
Shaila's t-shirt is wet and damp,

There's an owl in our school,
Why won't it go away!

'I see the naughty seagulls diving
slowly into the salty sea, trying to find some smelly
fish for their tea.
I taste the salt in the fresh air, as the wind blows
slowly through my soggy hair.
I feel the soggy sand under my feet, my tummy
rumbles because I want something yummy to eat.
I hear the children playing in the soft sand,
I have a green bucket and spade in my hand.'
By Dexter Rogers

'Diminutive spider using your legs to build your wonderful webs. Your entrancing lattice is sure to lure me in. Scurrying around your home tidying it up. Oh, spider how do you make such beauty? Splat a fly flies into your trap!' Written by Richard Tilbury

Spider's web

Glistening like a delicate string of diamonds,
Your spidery web hangs from a thorny bush.
Your secret spinneret has created an
orblike pattern,
As the drops of rain touch your web,
It creates a silky shine.
As insects fly by, do they not see your transparent web?
Terror-stricken as they fly into your lethal trap.

Westfield's Wonderful Writing

Each week, we will be celebrating the wonderful writers we have here at Westfield and publishing some of their work.

In Year 5, we have been reading Street Child and have been writing in role, pretending to be lots of different characters! Here are some examples of the wonderful writing we have produced:

This is my Story - The Story of Rosie Oddly. 'My friend Annie came to my house with her two girls Emily and Lizzie. She asked me to take care of them and I had to because Annie was incredibly sick. But a few weeks later his lordship caught me hiding the girls in the cupboard and I got the sack! Luckily, my Granddad picked me up and took me along the dreadfully rocky road where I saw lots of fields and houses until I reached the cottage.'
 Max Tibbs

'Dear Diary,
 When I heard Jim's story, I wanted to do something to help him. As soon as Jim said his Ma had died, my heart exploded with unhappiness and I burst into tears. Scarily, Jim met lots of different people whilst he was on the streets because a sick man kicked him out.'
 Jesse Francis

'I don't know how to put this into words but I will try. My friend got kicked out. Nervously, she dropped Lizzie and Emily off with me. I took care of them with all my heart. But my boss found me taking care of them and scared me. I was devastated. My dad took me to an abandoned cottage where I would be living on my own. I wish I could be free like a turtle.'
 Brooke Holcombe
